

Sought after for her positive energy, Bridget Kinneary is a musician regularly taking on the role of a conductor, music director, educator, violist, and collaborative artist. Bridget has worked with the Education department of the Berlin Philharmonic, the Harare Youth Orchestra in Zimbabwe, the National Youth Orchestra of Belize, and the Köpenick Blasorchester near Berlin. She is the recipient of a Fulbright Grant to Germany (2016) and the Mulert award for Mutual Understanding (2018). Currently, Bridget is a candidate for an MBA in arts innovation with the Global Leaders Cohort of the Orchestra of the Americas and a Master's Degree in conducting, studying with Dr. Mark Powell at the Aaron Copland School of Music, New York.